From previous team members...

*...I met many visitors open to talk about Jesus, it was so refreshing!
... it was amazing to pray & serve on an international team, united in sharing the gospel
...CIO changed me (well God changed me, but He used CIO)*

What happens?

Thousands of international students come to study English in Cambridge each summer, and 'Cambridge International Outreach' (CIO) works in partnership with local churches to meet these visitors and then take the opportunities God gives us to bring the good news of Jesus. On a team you would:

- Enjoy fellowship within an international team of around 40, receiving training in cross-cultural friendship and evangelism
- Run Andy's & Harry's – our evening international cafés, meet visitors from all around the world, spend afternoons developing friendships over a game of volleyball or a boating trip
- Share the gospel with visitors through conversations, Bible studies & church services

Is it for me?

The main requirements are a genuine Christian faith and a willingness to learn and serve (it's not a holiday!) For each team we are also looking for some individuals particularly gifted in: cooking, drama, bible study leading, mending bikes, music and teaching English to fill special roles.*

Where would I stay?

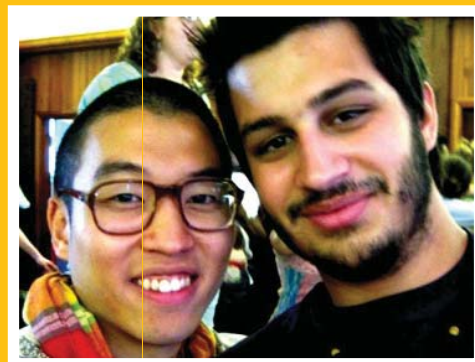

Bed and Breakfast accommodation is provided free by local Christians

Which teams?

Most team members stay for one team, but we value continuity over the summer and offer a discount if you can stay for more than one team. There are also 2-3 free places if you would like to join for all 7 weeks and can take on more responsibilities!

...what is 'Team 3x'?

In the last week of CIO, we aim to introduce the longer-staying internationals to local Christians so the work can continue. If you are thinking of applying for Team 3, it'd be great if you could stay for this eXtra week.

When is it?

Team 1

4-18 Jul

Team 2

18 Jul-1 Aug

Team 3

1-15 Aug

Team 3x

1-22 Aug

Costs

Teams 1-3: £100, or £140 for 2 teams; Team 3x: £120⁺

“

...don't talk on phone while biking (!)*

* The outreach is a busy two weeks; we serve in God's strength but we do ask that team members are aged between 18-40. Ability to ride a bike would be helpful. Fluent spoken English is necessary.

[†]Please don't let financial difficulties stop you from applying.

Summer outreaches to international students also take place across the UK. Go to: www.friendsinternational.org.uk/friends_int/getting_involved/Summer_teams/
